Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-11, drawn to a magazine-based cartridge library having a magazine transport device with a tray, classified in class 360, subclass 92.
  - II. Claims 12-47, drawn to a magazine-based cartridge library having a magazine holder and door mechanism, classified in class 360, subclass 90.

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as in a library without the holder and door mechanism disclosed in Group II; and invention II can be used without the particular tray disclosed in Group I. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

2. If Group I is elected, this group contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species Ia, drawn from claim 8.

Species Ib, drawn from claim 9.

Species Ic, drawn from claim 10.

Species Id, drawn from claim 11,

Art Unit: 2652

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 7 is generic.

3. If Group II is elected, the following restriction will be applied:

Ila: claims 12-47, drawn to a magazine-based cartridge library having a magazine holder and door mechanism, classified in class 360, subclass 90.

Ilb: claim 48-55, drawn to a method of using the magazine holder, classified in Inventions Ila and Ilb are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method can be used for a system without the particular door mechanism disclosed in Group Ila.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. If group Ila is elected, the following restriction will be applied:

Group Ila1, claims 14, 15, and 48-55, drawn to a magazine holder and means for moving, classified in class 360, subclass 91.

Group Ila2, claims 16-47, drawn to a door mechanism, classified in 369, subclass 292.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions IIa1 and IIa2 are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention Group IIa1 can be used without the particular door mechanism disclosed in Group IIa2 and invention IIa2 can be used without the particular holder disclosed in Group IIa1. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. If group IIa2 are elected, the following restriction will be applied:

Group IIa2 contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species IIa21, drawn from claims 16-20.

Species IIa22, drawn from claim 21.

Species IIa23, drawn from claims 22-25.

Species IIa24, drawn from claims 26-34.

Species IIa25, drawn from claims 35-39.

Species IIa26, drawn from claims 40-47.

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
